SCHOOL OF CHOICE 105 or 105C /TUITION APPLICATION DISCLAIMER
2009-2010 School Year

By signing below, I agree to hold harmless each participating district, their employees, and their Board of Education Members for any decision in the selection process, potential or actual participation as a Schools of Choice/Tuition student relative to academic achievement, co-curricular participation, student discipline related to behavior, and all other aspects of participation as a member of a student body.

It is further understood that transportation for non-resident students will be provided by the parent/legal guardian. I also consent to have all student records information (including academic and behavioral records) released to Lawton Community School District from the district previously attended.

I further understand that incomplete, false or misleading information will render this application null and void and will result in removal of the student from the Schools of Choice/Tuition program and Lawton Community Schools.

I also understand that if my child is selected for admission to the Lawton Community Schools, the parent/guardian will be responsible for providing transportation and I will agree to abide by the policies and administrative procedures of the Lawton Community School District.
